Printing Transparencies on a Toshiba machine

Transparencies print best when the machine isn’t running too hot. Only one transparency should be printed at a time. Once the student is ready to print the document on to the transparency, press Print and then click on Properties in the printer dialog box.

Then Select Special 1 from the Paper Type box on the Basic tab.
The transparency needs to be placed in the bypass tray

The print job will be processed.

February 3, 2012