Nursing Resources for Research

Prof. Sagar, NUR3006 January 17, 2013
Learning Objectives

- review research resources
- review APA citation style
- live demo
Research resources

- Books
- Databases of journal articles

[Images of various research resources logos]
Databases are key

- Premium online subscription information resources
- Online collections of journal and newspaper articles, scholarly information from published works
- Searchable
- Often contain full-text articles
Why use APA citation style?

- Provides guidelines for formatting papers
- Provides instructions on creating citations for the resources used in writing the paper
JOURNAL Articles with DOI (Digital Object Identifier)

Continuous Pagination

Author(s). (Date of publication). Title of the article. Title of the Periodical, volume number, Inclusive page numbers. doi:DOI

Reference List Examples:

doi:10.1037/a0013490

Reference Citation In Text Example:

(Magnavita, 2008, p. 265)
JOURNAL Articles without DOI (Digital Object Identifier)

Continuous Pagination

Author(s). (Date of publication). Title of the article. Title of the Periodical, volume number, Inclusive page numbers.

Reference List Example:

Reference Citation In Text Example:

(Hanson, 1999)
Review

- Search databases (not Google)
- Use nursing library guide for research resources
- APA citation style
- On to the live demo!!!
DO NOT WAIT UNTIL THE DAY BEFORE YOUR ASSIGNMENT IS DUE TO CONTACT YOUR LIBRARIAN
Thank you

Denise A. Garofalo
Systems & Catalog Services Librarian

This presentation available online at http://libraryguides.msmc.edu/nursing_general