Instructions for Registering for MyA&P

Monday September 19 – I spoke with the representative today and these new instructions should work. I would appreciate it either way if someone would let me know.

Thanks,

Dr. Sarro (sarro@msmc.edu)

You now have the ability to utilize all of the modules on the MyA&P website by registering the copy that came packaged with your lab manual. To register your copy and gain access to the various modules follow the instructions below.

1. enter our textbook's website by entering www.anatomyandphysiology.com
2. click on the picture of our book's cover
3. click on "Go to MyA&P"
4. go to section headed "Yes – I have a course ID" and click on register
5. fill in all of the information requested
6. when asked for the Course ID enter the following sarro25208
7. after you are done registering you can enter the site by going to www.coursecompass.com
9. if you have any difficulties be sure to contact product support in the past they have been very helpful and all students have been able to access and use the programs provided

Remember you should also be using the supplements that are available from our text's web site at www.anatomyandphysiology.com.

I hope this works and helps,

Dr. Sarro
